

The Denver Preschool Program (DPP) provides financial support to all families of four-year-old children living in Denver to attend a high-quality preschool.

ENRICHING LIVES

of CHILDREN and their FAMILIES

Relieve Financial Strain

We recently surveyed Denver parents who received tuition support from DPP.

85%

indicated that DPP tuition credits provided RELIEF FROM FINANCIAL STRAIN.

provided relief from financial strain

85%

For parents, this tuition relief helped them to:

send a child to their preschool of choice

75%

pay bills

61%

buy food

59%

afford leisure activities

55%

Reduce Parental Stress

Parents who reported less financial pressure also reported a

10%

REDUCTION IN STRESS.

Less parental stress leads to more PARENT-CHILD ACTIVITIES.

Improve Kindergarten Readiness

Financial support from DPP can help improve children's kindergarten readiness by reducing parental stress and promoting more parent-child interactions.

